STUDENT OFFICERS.

EXAMINATIONS AND A RECEPTION TO THE BOARD BY MRS. FRANK.

An Efficient Instructor Goes to Alabama Dinner and Other Social Parties-Virginians at the Point,

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] OLD POINT COMPORT, VA., June 25 .-There is a general feeling of reliet among the young student officers on duty at ithe Artillery School that the two years of hard study through which they have passed is at an end, and that text-books can be laid aside until the exigencies of the service on a college detail once more brings them to the front. The final examination of the board terminated yesterday, and has been most thorough and searching.

At its close the members of the board repaired to Colonel Franks'z quarters, where a reception was held, which gave them an opportunity to meet the officers and ladies of the garrison and those of the camp. Mrs. Frank is a charming hostess, and was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. Colonel Townsend, Mrs. Major Hasbrouck, Mrs. Liceutenaut Edward Davis, Miss Lizzie Taylor, of Norfolk, and her daughter, Miss Alico Frank. The Artillery-School Band was stationed under the grove of live caks adjoining headquarters and rendered patriotic and popular airs during the reception, when was a very brilliant affair.

The class now on duty here will not be releaved, with one or two exceptions, until the new officers arrive, which will not be until September 1st. terday, and has been most thorough and
